Selling or renting your Western Suburbs property?

Independent agents' merger means good news for you!

From 1 December 2008, two of the most successful independent real estate agencies in the Western Suburbs area amalgamate.

Lowthian Heathcote Realty (LHR) merges with Active Property Sales and adopts its name. Both are REIQ-accredited agencies. (Not all are!)

Active's Susan Bardon directs the resulting 12-person all-local sales team, and Ross Bardon controls the thriving rental business.

Both premises retained

Sales and rentals continue from LHR's long-time agency in Village Fair Shopping Centre in Middle Park, while Active's premises in Mt Ommaney Shopping Centre now provide admin facilities for the expanded business.

Shared values

Susan Bardon says, "Our deliberate non-membership of a franchise group allows us to offer our clients a lower-cost, full service real estate agency.

"LHR and its staff, who will come on board Active Property, share our values.

"We continue to focus on pro-active, cost-effective selling as well as all you could wish for in property management."
